

Assesment - 4

2) What are React Hooks?

Hooks are a new addition in React 16.8. They let you use state and other React features without writing a class. Hooks are backwards-compatible.

Hooks allows you use state & other React features, like lifecycle methods, without writing a class.

6) Explain the project structure of React App

It consists of node-modules which holds all the dependencies of our project.

Public folder consists of favicon.ico, index.html, manifest.json.

Src folder consists of css folder and js folders.

And others package.json, package-lock.json